Have you heard the sto - ry told of the Man whose heart was sold
 In the grove I heard Him say, "Oh my Fa - ther please just stay."
 As they took Him off to die there His friend-ship I de - nied.

To save my dy - ing soul? Oh what love un - told.
 Through brok - en heart - ed pain He did pave the way.
 For - give - ness in His eyes, He did not des - pise.

To the end He's al - ways sought me. To the end He's al - ways loved me.
 To the end His heart is faith - ful. To the end His hand is ab - le.
 To the end His love con - strains me. To the end He has re - stored me.
